

GL, owner of Jeff's Taproom, has expanded his location and now has two different areas where his customers can buy Delaware Lottery products. He has also added several monitors for his Keno players to be able to view and play Keno. Because of his efforts, Keno sales have improved as well as his overall Lottery sales. GL is looking forward to continuing growing his Lottery business and being a proud partner with the Delaware Lottery to increase sales for his entire business.